There was quite a company at the musicale held at Miss Butts' school of Wednesday afternoon. The young ladies gave their selections nicely, playing with even more than their usual ing with even more than their usua care, and the programme was rendered care, and the programme was rendered especially attractive by two selections by their teacher, Mr. Swift, of Boston, and three violin piecos by Miss Lucile Peck. The first number on the programme was Ketterer's Valse des Fleurs, given by Miss Schafer. Miss Dorothy Jones followed with two selections—Bach's Prelude in C Minor and Poldini's Hanswurst. A pretty selection, Saint-Saems' Swan, for piano and violin, was given by Miss Constant selection, Saint-Saens' Swan, for piano and violin, was given by Miss Constable and Miss Peck. Miss Boutsiller played Mozart's Turkish Rondo and Miss Ely gave Gaynor's North Land Cradle Song. Musin's Mazurka by Miss Peck was given with sweetness and skill and proved an especially delightful number. This was followed by Miss Constable's rendering of Grieg's March of the Dwarfs and that of Godard's Second Mazurka by Miss Garnsey. A movement from Grieg's Sonstain G Minor for violin and piano won admiration and applance, being played with much grace and expression by Miss Peck and her accompanist, Miss Jane Swift, of Waterloo, N. The last two numbers were given by Mr. Swift and numbers were given by Mr. Swift and made a delightful ending of the aftermade a delightful ending of the afternoon's programme. Mr. Swift, who is

MISS M. C. ADLES, Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist

THE STAMP OF STYLE is given a woman's appearance by the way her hair is dressed. Do not expect to look up-to-date with a 1909 outfit and a Colonial coffure! Have your hair correspond with your costume and millinery. Let Miss Adlessive you the newest hair style for the summer. She will be in Norwich all the week of June 7th.
